NUMBER 28.

BOUND OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT

P. J. Fulkerson, John Dunn and Estel Kring Held in Robbery Case. C. S. Wood Dismissed.

The preliminary hearing of P. J. Fulkerson, John Dunn, Estel Kring and C. S. Wood, charged with robbing John Dombroski early Monday morning, February 27, was held before E. A. O'Dwyer, Wednesday. After the testimony was all in Mr. O'Dwyer bound over the first three named to circuit court under $3,000 bond each. All of the men gave bond. The judge decided that there was not sufficient evidence to hold Wood and he was released. He has a case against him, however, for having intoxicating liquor on his premises and he will be heard on this charge March 16.

Witnesses examined were Mr. and Mrs. John Dombroski, Joe Dombroski, Ed Friday, Miss Sophia Dombroski, James Johnson and J. L. Bland, Harry Morelock and Ed Wagner.

According to the testimony, the robbery occurred between 12 and 1 o'clock Monday morning, February 27. Four men in a large car drove to the Dombroski home. Two men, with their faces covered, went to the house leaving two others in the car. They stated that they were United States officers and had come after liquor. They abused Mr. and Mrs. Dombroski, secured $80 in money and a large quantity of liquor. The telephone wires to the Dombroski house had been cut and after the robbery Mr. Dombroski went one half mile to the home of Mr. Golubski and telephoned to J. A. Johnson, a Monett officer.

Mr. Johnson was at the corner of Fourth street when he saw a car come into town, turn north on Third street. He saw the car again at 3 o'clock coming down Fifth street to Broadway.

The Monett officers expected to trace the robbery through the liquor and suspicion having been directed to C. S. Wood's home at 601 Sixth street they secured a search warrant from E. A. O'Dwyer and raided the house Monday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock. They found liquor in a wash boiler and tub and other receptacles. Following the finding of the liquor the four men charged with the crime were arrested.

Ed Friday and Miss Sophia Dombroski went to a party at Bricefield Sunday night, returning to the Dombroski home after midnight. They heard a knock at the door and Miss Dombroski opened it, immediately shutting it again. A man with a flashlight and gun broke the window and ordered the couple to put out the lights. They did so and two men entered the house. They had their faces covered. Mrs. Dombroski, who slept down stairs, heard the noise and came into the room carrying a lighted lamp. The men blew out the light. Miss Dombroski ran up stairs after her father. One of the robbers went up and come back down with Mr. Dombroski. Young Friday and Mr. Dombroski were taken out doors and robbed of the money they had in their clothing. One of the men struck Mr. Dombroski in the side with his gun, breaking a rib. They also struck Mrs. Dombroski. In the fray the stove pipe was knocked down, hitting Mrs. Dombroski on the head. She was ordered to go back to bed.

The bandits then forced John Dombroski, his brother Joe, and Ed Friday to go to the barn and help them carry the liquor to the front yard. The robbers then loaded it into the car. It was in glass jugs.

The most damaging testimony was given by Officer J. A. Johnson. Immediately after seeing the car come into town, he went to the corner of Third street and Broadway and examined the tread. He saw the same car go to Wagner's garage at 3 o'clock. He went there and found that the tread of a car there was the same as that he had already examined. Ed Wagner, the garage man, told him that the car belonged to P. J. Fulkerson.

son. Mr. Johnson, in company with Deputy Sheriff E. R. Matthews, drove to the Dombroski place and found the print of the same tread in the road in front of the house.

Mr. Wagner testified that Fulkerson kept his car at the garage. That he and Estel Kring came after the car at 11:30 o'clock the night of the robbery. He did not know what time he brought it back, that it was in the garage the next morning.

Harry Morelock testified that the four defendants had lunch at the Broadway Coffee Shop between 11:30 and 11:45 the night of the robbery. At about 3 o'clock Fulkerson and Dunn bought sandwiches there.

The court room was crowded during the hearing, there being many breaking a rib. They also struck Mrs. Dombroski. In the fray the stove pipe was knocked down, hitting Mrs. Dombroski on the head. She was

TWO PINEVILLE BANKS LOOTED

Bandits Gain Entrance to Bank of Pineville and McDonald County Bank and Then Tunnel Into Vaults.

Pineville, Mo., March 8.—Several thousands dollars worth of liberty bonds are believed to have been obtained by bandits, who early this morning broke into two banks here, tunneled through the walls of vaults and made away with the contents of thirty or more safety deposit boxes. Vaults in both banks were stripped. No attempts were made to break into the safes.

The banks robbed are: Bank of Pineville, and the McDonald County bank.

Tonight bank officials were unable to estimate the actual losses, as it has not been learned what the safety deposit boxes contained. It was stated, however, that several citizens are known to have had liberty bonds in the vaults.

It is known that many legal papers valuable only to their rightful owners were taken.

The burglaries were discovered this morning when the banks were opened for the day.

So quietly were the burglaries conducted that no one was aroused. Authorities learned this morning that residents heard a motor car speed through the town shortly before daylight. It is believed that the bandits escaped in one or more motor cars, and that they headed toward Joplin.
